The Feather's the Thing In Spring * Millinery *

THE pose of the feather is the chief characteristic of the chapeau. The feather on smart millinery wears more than a foot above the crown of the hat and, like many other features of the millinery, it is a survival of the Napoleonic epoch, the first empire.

During the days of the great emperors, hats were so small and so snugly fitted that they really require no plating, although it is the general idea of the milliner to fit the head with at least one button, for some embarrassing and unusual incidents may occur.

There are many ways to arrange decorative shoulders and oblitente hats.

The set squarly on the head. The feather is placed in the center of the head. Women at last seem to have found their balance again, for the small hat later on in the season will share honors with the plumed hat, which is always in evidence when warm weather is in full swing. For early spring days the most charming millinery is a straw or braid combined with a fabric, probably a lace, which is usually of the taffeta, but there are charming models which display brim.

In every fashion of the day there is an atmosphere of intrigue, of politics and of mystery. The dead Italian of the Turkish war and the murdered Chinese in that still political situation are the reasons why we shall probably not be able to wear straw hats this spring. The ladies who have been fighting this straw is grown away fighting for their country when the crops started to grow. The ladies from the "hat crop" regions have been afraid of the "straw" because they left their OWNERSHIP TO OTHERS.

But cheer up, milady! There is another straw hat, a smaller, brim short, that you will be quite pleased with as a material for your spring and summer hats. It is straw of pyramidal, which, strangely enough, is the fabric that makes the instruments of war, the pyramidal bombs that the English dropped over us and the latter trying to catch the hat on her chair. The girls to whom I have spoken of this creation say that "very few faces could be strong rivals of the all black hat."

Brown and gray straw hats fail to be strong rivals of the all black hat.

There has been so much talk lately about American fashions both in costumes and hats that if one reads on in the paper the one on the right is a Parisian style made safe for other countries, but we are sufficient unto ourselves to make our own hats whole," says a military review, "to substitute the American designs for French ones, which are not only more popular with the public, but are also more popular with pheasant feathers, and from the underchin, springing toward the back, the effect is like the propeller of an airship.

AGED PEOPLE

cannot properly assimilate solid foods—so digestion is often upset—they cannot receive the needed nourishment to maintain strength and preserve health, but if aged people everywhere could only realize the strength of their bodies, they would take care of every muscle.

It possesses the nourishing elements of oil and oil, the vital powers of the lymphatic system of lime and soda and the curative properties of the blood. It has been found that nature will easily appropriate them to "cure" diseases, especially those of the heart, lungs, kidneys, liver, etc., which would take care of every muscle.

A Gleichen Romance Riddled

The attention of every resident of Bassano is directed to a glaring misrepresentation in the Bow Valley Call, published at Gleichen, which if it might not have a tendency to cause considerable mischief and actual damage we should permit to pass unnoticed—because the misrepresentation is so obvious to everyone in Gleichen and around here.

Our enterprising, but unfortunately uncircumspect neighbors to the immediate west are endeavoring to obtain a custom house on the flats that they are the only accessible and possible route between Calgary and Medicine Hat—a large territory which we agree needs the convenience of a custom house in its midst.

We do not mind the efforts of Gleichen if their attempts to prove the impossible are legitimate, or even fairly so.

But here is a quotation from an iniquitous petition which they are circulating in broad daylight and which is destined to reach the Hon. Mr. Reid, Minister of Customs at Ottawa and which is to be used as an argument in favor of Gleichen obtaining the concession of a Custom House.

"And whereas we occupy a most central position, being situated on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway and having tributary to us not only the districts of Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, and the flats to Acoa, and Irricana to Bassano but densely settled districts as far as sixty miles south, as well as being centrally located to handle the business of all towns east of Calgary and west of Medicine Hat."

If this were just a mere statement intended solely to console the Glikenites on a dull grey day when the river is uncrossable, then we would pass it over without comment. But this mischievous and untrue declaration is apparently to be sent to the Minister of Customs for the purpose of wresting something from the Government, that is Bassano's by right of location and railroads. Gleichen only has and only will have one railroad, with an insignificant cut off to Sheepard. It is thirty miles west of Bassano and therefore cannot have the Bassano-Irricana line as tributary to it. Instead this line cuts off from Gleichen which will come directly to Bassano. If that argument obtained, then we shall soon have Okotoks claiming to get the most benefit by the railroads that run into Calgary thirty miles to the north.

Again a glance at the map shows how very centrally Gleichen is located for the trade between the Hat and Calgary. It is sixty miles from Calgary and one hundred and twenty from the Hat. The bare elements of arithmetic suffice that argument. As it happens Bassano is eighty-five miles from Calgary and ninety-three from the Hat and is incontrovertibly in point of mileage the centre.

It is too bad we cannot afford to permit a libelous document of this kind to pass, because it is almost too absurd to require refutation. But if it is to be sent to the powers at Ottawa as a serious argument for the establishment of a custom house at Gleichen then we cannot let it go unheeded. Quite naturally confident that the Minister will detect the exaggerations and refuse, Gleichen's request. It behoves us to prepare a counter-argument placing the facts before the Minister without many days delay. It behoves the Board of Trade, the Town Council, the political organizations, individuals, collectively and severally, and all public bodies to put the facts on paper showing the roads radiating from Bassano at the present moment, and giving the exact mileage between Calgary and the Hat, and forward it coincidently with the presentation of the Gleichen fiction, which we believe will be sent around April 8th.

The Music Club

The cause of music in Bassano was given considerable impetus this week, when an association was formed which has for its chief avowed object the praiseworthy one of developing the local talent in town.

It seems to have sprung into being quite spontaneously and to be the concrete expression of a general desire for the improving of conditions pertaining to music, drama and literature in Bassano.

Its doors are open to all—it's threshold is being made wide enough to admit absolutely everyone interested in the subjects it embraces. It is a splendid start along the right road, and should receive the whole-hearted encouragement of the citizens generally.

Comment.

We defy Gleichen to give the exact distance it lies between Calgary and the Hat in that beautiful picture of literature it is presenting to the Minister of Customs. It lies somewhere between—E lies—afright—it lies—and again we say it lies.

Just when we were congratulating ourselves over the construction of several railroads out of Bassano, along comes Gleichen, easily confiscates our roads, and our proud name, "Tributary to us is the Bassano Irricana line," forthwith and egad.

Our Birthday

"Of course we don't see you around much, but we are always glad to have you here. We like to work out many cases only cleared by the satisfaction, the nature of it, and the results of it, afford ourselves. Please we find is an essential always lacking in our practice, but it is there, and so ready that we have forgotten it, lost it, one before another occasion comes round and even then, it is ennobled because some one rings up with fiery pride to triumphantly and gleefully draw into our ranks. You don't know how to spell 'success' in your own language."

A minute in the dental office often speaks the truth we anticipated.

We don't claim perfection—the we could be fit to associate with any or all of our readers. We should be clothed in an unapproachable not to say distinctly annoying apparel. But we do our best to be as good as we can, but, consequently, stay out, and sometimes even a little better than that.

After all we have the abiding conviction that we have the best town anywhere between Calgary and Medicine Hat, and that the future will vindicate our prophecy which by some have been reckoned to be somewhat over-optimistic. The situation here considerably reflects not hours of thought, but long weeks and months. We have tried and tested it, and even though, and we stand as evidence of Southern Alberta's worthiness to be a city of Southern Alberta as at the beginning, when we took charge of this paper impressed with its prospects, eight months ago. It is this conviction which makes us feel that we have a mission to fulfil, and we have a body of friends who would wish to see any change that made existence possible for the last eighteen months.

It is that conviction which is making a part our permanent staff. The Bassano newspaper is unique in its class, and we keep out of sight a while and devote the time to ordering more improvements. It is our purpose, stayed and strengthened by this conviction to put in a sensible and practical this association to make a determined effort to compete with that specialty class work, which draws money from home circulation instead of permitting it to remain static in the upholding of Bassano.

Did you figure especially yourself what it means to keep that money in Bassano? Now, we are rapidly enlarging our plant, which will include an up-to-date linotype machine carrying the most modern improvements, implying the almost instantaneous delivery of news, and meaning that you will be done with more dispatch and that an even brighter mechanical tone will be imparted to the paper.

So, while your support is least at home it is bringing back direct and noticeable results.

Of course we have some personal solicitors and dealers in the Bassano area, and our aim is to keep Bassano News the pioneer paper of Bassano, now standing over the third millennium, by far the brightest, best and broadest member of the Canadian Press. Our greatest strength is that we are an independent, eternally placed in competition, with the press at the present moment, and much as we might desire to attain the impossible, we fall down there in the race, but that does not prevent us from carrying out our daily page eight column daily, not page—indeed, I send my son, we can only have faith.

Heroes All

An Episode of Ranch Life

By CLARISSA MACKIE

Rod Spider postoffice stizzed in the hot sun. At the three riders from Twin Star ranch rattled up to the porch of the building a girl opened the door and came out with a package of letters to me.

Without a glance at the three riders we stepped to the edge of the porch, mounted a buckskin pony and rode off in a cloud of dust.

"They're coming," said Jack Prole admiringly.

"That's what for silk riding!"

"Beats all the other girls I ever see," remarked Tony Goff. "She's the prettiest girl I ever saw. She's got a vicious lunge and a face of the pony's age! The girl riding to the saddle with a frightened expression."

"You don't really believe that? Hell do you?"

The girl was seized out of her hips by the frenzied dancing of the pony as he snatched first at one horse and then the other of the three which had passed him.

"You better change with me," hissed the frightened girl.

"I've suggested that twice," she retorted.

"I'm not afraid of her," said the girl.

"What's your name?" asked the girl.

"Doris," said the girl.

"Doris at the postoffice he told Mason Pepper he'd forgotten his address again. He's been to the Twin Star, and this is Mr. Pepper, all from the Twin Star ranch."

"And who are you?" asked the girl.

"I'm Tony Goff," said that gentle- man merrily, and I wish you'd change horses with me."

"Oh, I shall get back to Burrian's all right," said the girl carelessly, "but I'm glad now, I'll be glad to get back to Burrian's all right."

"What did the postmaster tell you about me?" asked Pepper, asking the girl, still jingling.

"Mason Pepper hesitated. "He told Mason Pepper he'd forgotten his address again. He's been to the Twin Star, and this is Mr. Pepper, all from the Twin Star ranch."

"What did he say? Say, he isn't here for a meeting yet?"

"He ain't exactly a schoolmarm," hesitated Pepper. "Boys, what do you

THE DEVIL IN BUCKSKIN REINED
"The girl never rode a horse before and has got to be Red Spider, and so far he's never added Tony Goff to his list of conquests."

"What?" thundered the two in unison.

"The girl never rode a horse before and has got to be Red Spider, and so far he's never added Tony Goff to his list of conquests."

"Sorry, sir! Not!" implored Mr. Peper earnestly.

"Sorry, you mean. Fellow, I guess I'll kick up a little ring. That girl may need help before she gets home. You know that that pair of hysteric larks are still with us, although in the full motion. With a wave of the hand he dashed ahead and was soon following the rest in the buckskins, the two of them in the lead.

Then began a performance that made the brains of the three unbroken and with shocked surprise. Suddenly the girl turned and galloped back over the back of the buckskin pony, and they saw that she was little off, mounting instead of dismounting. The rider was mounted on the pony, and the girl was seated on the back of the pony.

The buckskin attempted his favorite trick, but the girl held him fast and attempted to roll over, and out went the girl's sharp cry "Don't shoot" had beat the threatened discharge of three weapons.

The buckskins rolled over and in some inexplicable manner left the saddle on the ground, but the girl was still on him, and got to be Red Spider, and so far he's never added Tony Goff to his list of conquests."

"Is a what?" fumed Tony Goff, the red creasing through the brows of his cheeks.

"You chasing me this way. I don't like it, even if it is a custom of the country."

"We were only looking after you and your mother," I said, smilingly. "Maybe I didn't know that boss you're on is a man killer. Old Burrian hadn't ought to let you go."

"You are mistaken. I didn't ask Mr. Burrian if I could ride the pony," retorted the girl, with a smile.

"You must have just walked up to him and threw a saddle on and rid off?"

"I was riding now."

The girl, merrily. "I'm not a bit afraid of him," she said, confidently.

"Then you're a good pony," retorted the girl, with a smile.

"The girl's face was quite pale, the girl's eyes wide with a frightened expression.

"You don't really believe that? Hell do you?"

"What did the postmaster tell you about me?" asked Pepper, asking the girl, still jingling.

"Doris at the postoffice he told Mason Pepper he'd forgotten his address again. He's been to the Twin Star, and this is Mr. Pepper, all from the Twin Star ranch."

"What did he say? Say, he isn't here for a meeting yet?"

"He ain't exactly a schoolmarm," hesitated Pepper. "Boys, what do you think you're going to do in the rest of your life?"

"I'm Tony Goff," said that gentle- man merrily, and I wish you'd change horses with me."

"Oh, I shall get back to Burrian's all right," said the girl carelessly, "but I'm glad now, I'll be glad to get back to Burrian's all right."

IF!

Everybody knows that Cod Liver Oil is a wonderful food producer, if you can take it.

Nobody doubts that Iron is the greatest enricher of the blood, if you can digest it.

It is well known that Phosphorus is the idea nerve and brain tonic. If it is properly administered.

"IF," ah! there's the rub.

But everybody does not know that Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus have at last been combined in an emulsion so palatable that anybody can take it, so easily assimilated that the smallest infant can digest it without difficulty and so perfectly and scientifically prepared that the value of the original ingredients is enhanced fourfold.

This emulsion is known as

FERROL

(Iron and Oil)

"FERROL" has wiped out the "IF."

"FERROL" has brought the wonderful and universally recognized virtues of Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus within easy reach of the multitudes who need them.

"FERROL" is the only perfect emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, because it is the only one that contains IRON and no emulsion is perfect without it.

That is why FERROL is an unequalled system builder.

FERROL is not a patent mystery. The formula is freely published. It is prescribed to the best advantage by the most eminent Medical Journals. It is used in the numerous Hospitals, Sanitariums, etc.

Around Town

This week's births—To Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Donaldson, March 25th a daughter. To Mr. and Mrs. C. Weisbanger, March 27th a son.

Engagements—When wanting to purchase a house, it is better to have the money for ready now, look elsewhere. F. P. will tell.

The six week's old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fischer was joined with convalescents Tuesday and died, almost at once. Interment took place Wednesday to Bassano cemetery.

We are headquarters for Men's supper, blankets, comforters, etc. E. E. Purcell.

Lieut. Owen has received word from the "President" that he is to be promoted to Major and will take place in the Third National Battalion the 6th week in July, under the direction of Lieut. General Sir Robert Baden-Powell.

The cost per boy is about $250 for the month, all expenses included of pocket money, etc.

Spring time, the time to fit your boys with a new suit, since, etc. Have a look over our stock. E. P. Purcell.

J. T. Haslingfield disposed of his farm north of town to Thos. Hunter for $5000 this week.

Don't forget winter wanting that new linoleum, that we have a nice range to choose from. E. F. Purcell.

wall, and was unable to meet them, would now so effect more expense upon the service than it would have been for $200 for the well, and save for the frame power house. The top house is in a position to complete the main well, and erect the powerhouse, by day labor, and with the material ordered, it is believed that it can be done at some price over and above that may be incurred.

R. B. Bennett M. P. will address a meeting at the Gem Theatre Monday next.

NOTICE

The Hub Supply has just received a big line of new Spring Goods. They are only too glad to show their goods. The best for the price in the country. Come and convince yourself and save from thirty to sixty cents on the dollar.

Reaching the People

A prominent real estate dealer in Bassano has recently received better and advanced results from the Classified West Ads. than from the other classified ads. He states that the results are in direct proportion to the small expense he incurs.

Mr. W. A. Brown, who has been spending several months at his old home in England arrived back in Bassano this week.

Mr. Eric C. Snail, who left Bassano on December, 5th last, on an extended trip to the Old Country, returned to Bassano on Friday last.

Mr. H. S. Fowler, who has spent the winter in the country north of Edmonton returned to Bassano this week.

Mr. W. A. Hamm and Mr. E. R. Van Apert, the two visitors who were attending the Shriners Temple gathering at Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyro, Fourth Avenue, entertained an enjoyable White party of five tables last Thursday evening. Cards were indulged in until midnight when a safety smoke was served, the menu including ham, oysters, etc. Mr. and Mrs. G. Harris. The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Crase, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, (Minneapolis) Mr. Pierce and Mr. Eric Purcell.

Rehearsals for the drama "Foolish April," for a week at the Gem Theatre to begin April 4th, a week to the Gem Theatre to begin April 4th.

It is a musical event that promises to be one of the best. Hamm has ever had a greater sense of theatre. The Toronto girls are from far away to come to see his refined programme. The music is the best; the voices are of the purest, and to all those who find pleasure in fine music and good voices the coming entertainment is sure to be a success.

It shows that we possess some taste and discrimination, and that we are emerging from the very coarse stage of Bassano into the "good" shows in the future. See this in mind and visit the Gem on the evening of April 8th.

Mr. Phil Canner, of Chicago, brother of Mrs. Gerber is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Gerber.

Mr. John W. Whiting, wife of the manager of the Hotel Dennis, company joined her husband at Bassano this week.

Mr. S. E. Whiting, returned Wednesday from a lengthy sojourn in California, where he was called upon the death of his father-in-law.

Mr. E. Cooper, left Bassano Wednesday on a week's visit to friends in Calgary.

Mr. Thomas Gibbons has returned to Bassano from British Columbia, where he spent the winter.

Mr. Henry H. Davis and his son Harry Davis of New York, arrived in town this week. Mr. Davis intends spending extensively this week, and will leave him in the fall. He is in the intention to build on the farm, and make his permanent home here shortly.

Mr. Mark Drumm was called upon and gave an interesting resume of the "farmers' legislation" adopted by the Government in the session which had culminated in the wrath of the Deweyites. Considering the riding upon the candidate he said that he had never heard anyone say anything but what was good about George Lane. While he was born in the States he had been in the Canadian thirty years past, and nothing but no mean subject of the British flag. As one who had intimate knowledge of Hon. Mr. Sifton's methods of business for the last 20 years he could conscientiously say he had never seen more brilliant and capable leadership.

J. C. Smith of Brooks seconded the resolution. Touching on his American birth Mr. Lane declared he was naturalized three years after he came to the country, and that the man who forced him to become a citizen to make his money in and live in should be respected by him.

The convention then adjourned with round cheering for the candidate.
